

FINANCIAL AID DISCLOSURES

Reporting of All Instances of Expected Aid from Outside Sources

Federal Student Aid Guidelines require schools to include various types of aid, as part of the student's estimated financial assistance when packaging his/her financial aid award.

All categories of students are required to report all instances of expected aid to the Financial Aid Office. Failure to do so could result in the reduction, retraction or even cancellation of the student's financial aid award.

The list provided below, should not be construed as all inclusive:

- Waivers of Tuition and Fees
- Fellowships or assistantships
- Veteran Educational Benefits
- Stipends
- National Service Education Awards
- Insurance programs for student's education
- Scholarship(s)
- Any educational benefits paid because of enrollment in Post Secondary Education
- Chapter 1607 Reap Benefits
- ROTC living allowances
- Net income from Need-based Employment
- Americorps funds
- Designated State Aid

As part of the condition to receive financial award and/or future semester awards, the Financial Aid Office requires that you sign and return this disclosure statement. A copy has been provided for your records.
