RELEASE of INFORMATION POLICY

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 was designed to protect the privacy of education records, to establish the rights of students to inspect and review their education records, and to provide guidelines for the corrections of inaccurate or misleading information and complaints with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act Office (FERPA) concerning alleged failures by the institution to comply with the Act. The policy can be read in the Office of the University Registrar. This office also maintains a directory of record which lists all education records maintained on students by this institution.

Currently enrolled students may withhold disclosure of any category of information under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. To withhold disclosure, written notification must be received in the Office of the Registrar, First Floor, Whipple Barn, no later than 10 days after classes have started. Forms, requesting the withholding of “Directory Information”, are available in the Registrar’s Office.

This is to inform students that Hampton University intends to comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, and has designated the following information as public or directory information. Such information may be disclosed by the institution at its discretion.

Category I  name, address, telephone number, dates of attendance, class

Category II previous institutions(s) attended, major field of study, awards, honors (including Dean’s List), degree(s) conferred (including dates)

Category III past and present participation in officially recognized sports and activities, physical factors (height, weight of athletes), date and place of birth
OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR
HAMPTON UNIVERSITY

The United States Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act II of 1974 states that a student must authorize, in writing, the release of his academic record.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Joining the Hampton Family is an honor and requires each individual to uphold the policies, regulations, and guidelines established for students, faculty, administration, professional and other employees, and the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Each member is required to adhere to and conform to the instructions and guidance of the leadership of his/her respective area. Therefore, the following are expected of each member of the Hampton Family:

1. To respect himself or herself.
   …Each member of the Hampton Family will exhibit a high degree of maturity and self-respect and foster an appreciation for other cultures, one’s own cultural background, as well as the cultural matrix from which Hampton University was born. It is only through these appreciations that the future of our University can be sustained indefinitely.

2. To respect the dignity, feelings, worth, and values of others.
   …Each member of the Hampton Family will respect one another and visitors as if they were guests in one’s home. Therefore, to accost, cajole, or proselytize students, faculty or staff, parents or others, to engage in gender and sexual harassment, use vile, obscene or abusive language or exhibit lewd behavior, to possess weapons such as knives or firearms, or to be involved in the possession, use distribution of and sale of illegal drugs is strictly prohibited and is in direct violation of the Hampton University Code, on or off campus.

3. To respect the rights and property of others and to discourage vandalism and theft.
   …Each member of the Hampton Family will refrain from illegal activity, both on and off campus, and will be subject to all applicable provisions listed in the Faculty Handbook, Personnel Policies Manual for Administrative/Professional and Non-exempt Employees, the Official Handbook, and the Hampton University Code.

4. To prohibit discrimination, while striving to learn from differences in people, ideas, and opinions.
   …Each member of the Hampton Family will support equal rights and opportunities for all regardless of age, sex, race, religion, disability, ethnic heritage, socio-economic status, political, social, or other affiliation or disaffiliation, or sexual preference.

5. To practice personal, professional, and academic integrity, and to discourage all forms of dishonesty, plagiarism, deceit, and disloyalty to the Code of Conduct.
   …Personal, professional, and academic integrity is paramount to the survival and potential of the Hampton Family. Therefore, individuals found in violation of Hampton University’s policies against lying, cheating, plagiarism, or stealing are subject to disciplinary action which could possible include dismissal from the University.

6. To foster a personal professional work ethic within the Hampton University family.
   …Each employee and student of the Hampton Family must strive for efficiency and job perfection. Each employee must exhibit a commitment to serve and job tasks must be executed in a human and civil manner.

7. To foster an open, fair and caring environment.
   …Each member of the Hampton Family is assured equal and fair treatment on the adjudication of all matters. In addition, it is understood that intellectual stimulation is nurtured through the sharing of ideas. Therefore, the University will maintain an open and caring environment.

8. To be fully responsible for upholding the Hampton University Code.
   …Each member of the Hampton Family will embrace all tenets of the Code and is encouraged to report all code violators.
HAMPTON UNIVERSITY
STUDENT DRESS CODE

This code is based on the theory that learning to use socially acceptable manners and to select attire appropriate to specific occasions and activities are critical factors in the total educational process. Understanding and employing these behaviors improve the quality of one’s life, contribute to optimum morale, and embellish the overall campus image. They also play a major role in instilling a sense of integrity and an appreciation for values and ethics.

The continuous demonstrations of appropriate manners and dress insures that Hampton University students meet the very minimum standards of quality achievement in the social, physical, moral and educational aspects of their lives - essential areas of development necessary for propelling students toward successful careers.

Students will be denied admission to various functions if their manner of dress is inappropriate. On this premise students at Hampton University are expected to dress neatly at all times. The following are examples of appropriate dress for various occasions:

1. Classroom, Cafeteria, Student Center and University offices - neat, modest, casual, or dressy attire.
2. Formal programs in Ogden Hall, the Convocation Center, the Little Theater, Dett Auditorium and the Memorial Chapel - business or dressy attire.
3. Interviews - business attire.
4. Social/Recreational activities, Residence hall lounges (during visitation hours) - modest, casual or dressy attire.
5. Balls, Galas, and Cabarets - formal, semi-formal and dressy respectively.

Examples of inappropriate dress and/or appearance include but are not limited to:

1. Caps, do-rags or hoods for men and women in classrooms, the cafeteria, Student Center or other indoor activities. This policy item does not apply to headgear considered as a part of religious or cultural dress or traditional ladies’ headdress. Do-rags, stocking caps, skullcaps and bandanas are prohibited at all times on the campus of Hampton University (except in the privacy of the student’s living quarters).
2. Midriffs or halters, mesh, netted shirts, tube tops or cut-off tee shirts in classrooms, cafeteria, Student Center and offices;
3. Bare feet;
4. Short shorts;
5. Shorts, blue or other type jeans at major programs such as Musical Arts, Fall Convocation, Commencement, or other programs dictating professional, dressy, or formal attire,
6. Clothing with derogatory, offensive and/or lewd messages either in words or pictures;
7. Undershirts, for men, of any color outside of the private living quarters of the residence halls.

All administrative, faculty and support staff members will be expected to monitor student behavior applicable to this dress code and report any such disregard or violations to the Dean of Men or Dean of Women for the attention of the Dean of Students.
