Dear Parents:

I am sure that you are proud that your son or daughter is going off to college. You are probably curious, too, about the new life, and the experiences at Hampton University that will unfold. One experience that often raises questions is how to secure your student’s grades. To make this experience more meaningful to you, we have prepared the following information.

Under the United States Family Educational Rights Act of 1974, the student must authorize, in writing, the release of any part of his records including his/her grades. This U. S. law makes allowances for certain government entities and parents of a student, who have established that student’s status as a dependent, according to the Internal Revenue Code. We must abide by that law. In order to do so, while meeting the desires of parents, should your student need a second copy of his/her grades, he/she can complete an authorization form, located in this packet, or in the Registrar’s Office. We shall mail grades automatically, based upon the next-of-kin address that the student provides, after we have received authorization. Your student may also order transcripts of his/her academic record, with grades, at any time he/she chooses. The current fee is $10.00 per transcript.

Hopefully, this information will be beneficial to you and your son or daughter, and this information will also help to eliminate some of the stress that may occur while in attendance at the university. If I may be of further assistance in regards to your student’s academic or registration records, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Jorsene S. Cooper
University Registrar
Dear New Student:

This greeting is sent to remind you to observe the guidelines established by our offices regarding check in for on-campus students and commuting students as outlined in the Fall Registration information contained in this mailing.

We also take this opportunity to remind each of you to abide by the tenets of the Code of Conduct. A copy of this important document is included. You are further reminded that you may obtain a copy of the Official Student Handbook (2007 Revision) from your residence hall staff or from the office of the Dean of Men or Dean of Women and will be required to sign the Student Handbook Acknowledgement Receipt. It is essential that you become fully aware of its contents and that you carefully follow the ethical standard that it projects for becoming a successful Hamptonian. This important document is also available to be downloaded to your personal computer from either the HamptonYou or Campus Pipeline portals.

The Student Dress Code is also enclosed in this booklet. Be certain that you become familiar with and adhere to its contents.

If you have been assigned to on-campus housing, you are reminded to arrive on the check-in day noted for your assigned residence hall in the Registrar’s information. If you do not arrive within the 24-hour reporting period noted in the Housing Procedures, your room space will be forfeited.

If you will be living off-campus, you are to check-in, following the procedures indicated by the Registrar.

Thank you for your compliance in this regard. Have a pleasant summer.

Sincerely,

Woodson H. Hopewell, Jr.

HAMPTON UNIVERSITY
STUDENT DRESS CODE

This code is based on the theory that learning to use socially acceptable manners and to select attire appropriate to specific occasions and activities are critical factors in the total educational process. Understanding and employing these behaviors improve the quality of one’s life, contribute to optimum morale, and embellish the overall campus image. They also play a major role in instilling a sense of integrity and an appreciation for values and ethics.

The continuous demonstrations of appropriate manners and dress insures that Hampton University students meet the very minimum standards of quality achievement in the social, physical, moral and educational aspects of their lives - essential areas of development necessary for propelling students toward successful careers.

Students will be denied admission to various functions if their manner of dress is inappropriate. On this premise students at Hampton University are expected to dress neatly at all times. The following are examples of appropriate dress for various occasions:

1. Classroom, Cafeteria, Student Center and University offices - neat, modest, casual, or dressy attire.
2. Formal programs in Ogden Hall, the Convocation Center, the Little Theater, Dett Auditorium and the Memorial Chapel - business or dressy attire.
3. Interviews - business attire.
4. Social/Recreational activities, Residence hall lounges (during visitation hours) - modest, casual or dressy attire.
5. Balls, Galas, and Cabarets - formal, semi-formal and dressy attire respectively.

Examples of inappropriate dress and/or appearance include but are not limited to:

1. Caps, do-rags or hoods for men and women in classrooms, the cafeteria, Student Center or other indoor activities. This policy item does not apply to headgear considered as a part of religious or cultural dress or traditional ladies’ headdress. Do-rags, stocking caps, skullcaps and bandanas are prohibited at all times on the campus of Hampton University (except in the privacy of the student’s living quarters).
2. Midriffs or halters, mesh, netted shirts, tube tops or cut-off tee shirts in classrooms, cafeteria, Student Center and offices;
3. Bare feet;
4. Short shorts;
5. Shorts, blue or other type jeans at major programs such as Musical Arts, Fall Convocation, Commencement, or other programs dictating professional, dressy, or formal attire,
6. Clothing with derogatory, offensive and/or lewd messages either in words or pictures;
7. Undershirts, for men, of any color outside of the private living quarters of the residence halls.

All administrative, faculty and support staff members will be expected to monitor student behavior applicable to this dress code and report any such disregard or violations to the Dean of Men or Dean of Women for the attention of the Dean of Students.¹

Each member is required to adhere to and conform to the instructions and guidance of the leadership of his/her respective area. Therefore, the following are expected of each member of the Hampton Family:

1. To respect himself or herself.

   …Each member of the Hampton Family will exhibit a high degree of maturity and self-respect and foster an appreciation for other cultures, one’s own cultural background, as well as the cultural matrix from which Hampton University was born.
